

Just for Comparison...

If ONE CROSS Were to Represent
Approximately 3000 PEOPLE...

This one cross would represent the number of innocent victims murdered by terrorists on 9/11/01:

This would represent the number of innocent victims murdered by American citizens, in abortion clinics:

(The actual number of crosses would be greater, and it increases at the rate of approximately 10 per week.)

The terrorists would have to blow up nearly 20 World Trade Centers
EACH WEEK,
just to keep up with the abortion carnage.

The Difference?

For the one...

We call it a "national tragedy." We describe the terrorists as "an enemy who preys on innocent and unsuspecting people, then runs for cover," and as "people who ... have no regard whatever for the sanctity or value of human life." We claim that we "will hunt down and punish those responsible for these cowardly acts."

And so, we have now entered "the war against terrorism." We claim that we will uproot terrorism, no matter where it may exist on the globe. We are told that this war will be "a monumental struggle between good and evil," that God is on our side, and that "good will prevail."

- [Quotes from President Bush and Tony Blair, UK Prime Minister.]

For the other...

We call it "freedom of choice," even though the innocent victims are never given the opportunity to choose.

UPDATE 2005:

We would have to add approximately 1500 more crosses to the second list.

And the number keeps growing.
